Hi Steve,

I'm sorry to hear that you've been so unhappy with my services - I would never want anyone to feel like they have to work with me if they don't want to.

I will send a termination document shortly - once all parties sign I can remove the listings for both rent and sale.

Thank you,
Juliana

Karen,

I am writing to formally notify you that a demand letter (attached as a PDF, sent today) has been issued to Juliana Martell and her supervisor at Kurfiss Sotheby's International Realty.

This email formally serves as Notification to both Chancellor properties and the HOA Board of Executives for the Commons at New Street.

This action stems from Juliana's egregious undisclosed conflict of interest and her failure to disclose critical, conflicting information to the co-owners of 4CD.

Juliana currently holds dual roles: fiduciary representative on the Board of Executives for The Commons at New Street and seller's agent for condominium #4CD within the New Street Commons condominium community.

This blatant dual agency requires the boards attention.

The attached demand letter issued to Juliana addresses her in her capacity of a realtor. as a realtor and lays out the grievance in detail.

Because I must, In her role as a HOA Board member, I am putting both the Board and Chancellor Properties, on notice.

I have no evidence, nor did I seek to find it, as to whether Juliana disclosed her conflict of interest and obligation as our realtor to the HOA.

Such a conflict, especially involving delinquencies she's privy to, is untenable without full disclosure and consent from all parties.

No such disclosure occurred as it should have been given to us.

Our relationship with Juliana is terminated, effective now.

Additionally, as I've previously demanded—and I'm reiterating with urgency—send me all current documentation representing the bylaws of the governing HOA Board of Executives.

The Condo Cafe app (and web-browser portal) fails to display this information anywhere.

Board member Larry confirmed to me by-laws are not made readily available, which is unacceptable.

Further, the email announcing the upcoming annual board meeting claimed financials were attached. They were not. They were omitted.

I demand the following, and I expect compliance without delay:

1. The complete 2024 financials, forwarded to me immediately.
- The 2024 financials that were said to be attached, but were not attached to the recent email blast regarding the recent Annual Board Meeting. They were omitted.
2. The minutes from the most recent board meeting.

I will be dissecting the bylaws governing board member conduct, the privacy policy, and whether my personal delinquency data was properly safeguarded. I'm assuming—for now—that delinquencies are aggregated and discussed generally at meetings, with specifics restricted to board members.

The minutes and bylaws will prove or disprove this.

3. The exact verbiage and terms of the April 1, 2025 changes to delinquencies.

Note: It is not Larry's responsibility to reply casually over text message with such terms being requested and so I do not hold Larry accountable as he has been a resource that I trust, respect, and appreciate.

4. Confirmation as to Juliana's reelection as board member.

Please also refer to my previous email sent over the weekend if it went unread.

This is not a request—it's a directive.
