- (A) Broker, if named in an agreement of sale, will keep all deposit monies paid by or for the buyer in an escrow account until the sale is completed, the agreement of sale is terminated, or the terms of a prior written agreement between the buyer and Seller have been met. This escrow account will be held as required by real estate licensing laws and regulations. Buyer and Seller may name a nonlicensee as the escrow holder, in which case the escrow holder will be bound by the terms of the escrow agreement, if any, not by the Real Estate Licensing and Registration Act. Seller agrees that the person keeping the deposit monies may wait to deposit any uncashed check that is received as deposit money until Seller has accepted an offer.
- (B) Regardless of the apparent entitlement to deposit monies, Pennsylvania law does not allow a Broker holding deposit monies to determine who is entitled to the deposit monies when settlement does not occur. Broker can only release the deposit monies:
 - If an agreement of sale is terminated prior to settlement and there is no dispute over entitlement to the deposit monies. A written agreement signed by both parties is evidence that there is no dispute regarding deposit monies. __DS

116 12. OTHER PROPERTIES

Seller agrees that Broker may list other properties for sale and that Broker may show and sell other properties to prospective buyers.

118 13. ADDITIONAL OFFERS

Unless prohibited by Seller, if Broker is asked by a buyer or another licensee(s) about the existence of other offers on the Property,
Broker will reveal the existence of other offers and whether they were obtained by the Licensee(s) identified in this Contract, by another
Licensee(s) working with Broker, or by a licensee(s) working for a different Broker. ONCE SELLER ENTERS INTO AN AGREEMENT OF SALE, BROKER IS NOT REQUIRED TO PRESENT OTHER OFFERS.

123 14. SELLER WILL REVEAL DEFECTS & ENVIRONMENTAL HAZARDS

- (A) Seller (including Sellers exempt from the Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law) will disclose all known material defects and/or environmental hazards on a separate disclosure statement. A material defect is a problem or condition that:
 - 1. is a possible danger to those living on the Property, or
 - 2. has a significant, adverse effect on the value of the Property.
 - The fact that a structural element, system or subsystem is near, at or beyond the end of the normal useful life of such a structural element, system or subsystem is not by itself a material defect.
- (B) Seller will update the Seller's Property Disclosure Statement as necessary throughout the term of this Listing Contract.
- (C) If Seller fails to disclose known material defects and/or environmental hazards:
 - 1. Seller will not hold Broker or Licensee(s) responsible in any way;
 - 2. Seller will protect Broker and Licensee(s) from any claims, lawsuits, and actions that result;
 - 3. Seller will pay all of Broker's and Licensee's costs that result. This includes attorneys' fees and court-ordered payments or settlements (money Broker or Licensee pays to end a lawsuit or claim).

136 15. IF PROPERTY WAS BUILT BEFORE 1978

The Residential Lead-Based Paint Hazard Reduction Act says that any seller of property built before 1978 must give the buyer an EPA pamphlet titled Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home. The seller also must tell the buyer and the broker what the seller knows about lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards that are in or on the property being sold. Seller must tell the buyer how the seller knows that lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards are on the property, where the lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards on the property. Any seller of a pre-1978 structure must also give the buyer any records and reports that the seller has or can get about lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards in or around the property being sold, the common areas, or other dwellings in multi-family housing. According to the Act, a seller must give a buyer 10 days (unless seller and the buyer agree to a different period of time) from the time an agreement of sale is signed to have a "risk assessment" or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards done on the property. Buyers may choose not to have the risk assessment or inspection for lead paint hazards done. If the buyer chooses not to have the assessment or inspection, the buyer must inform the seller in writing of the choice. The Act does not require the seller to inspect for lead paint hazards or to correct lead paint hazards on the property. The Act does not apply to housing built in 1978 or later.

149 16. HOME WARRANTIES

At or before settlement, Seller may purchase a home warranty for the Property from a third-party vendor. Seller understands that a home warranty for the Property does not alter any disclosure requirements of Seller, may not cover or warrant any pre-existing defects of the Property, and will not alter, waive or extend any provisions of the Agreement regarding inspections or certifications that Buyer may elect or waive as part of the Agreement. Seller understands that Broker who recommends a home warranty may have a business relationship with the home warranty company that provides a financial benefit to Broker.

17. RECORDINGS ON THE PROPERTY

- (A) Seller understands that potential buyers viewing the Property may engage in photography, videography or videotelephony on the Property. Seller should remove any items of a personal nature Seller does not wish to have photographed or recorded, such as family photos, important or confidential paperwork (including any information relating to the listing or communications with Broker or Licensee) and all other personally identifiable information such as birthdates, social security numbers, telephone numbers, etc. Seller is responsible for providing this same notification to any occupants of the Property.
- (B) Any person who intentionally intercepts oral communications by electronic or other means without the consent of all parties is guilty of a felony under Pennsylvania law. Seller understands that recording or transmitting audio may result in violation of state or federal wiretapping laws. Seller hereby releases all BROKERS, their LICENSEES, EMPLOYEES and any OFFICER or PARTNER of any one of them, and any PERSON, FIRM or CORPORATION who may be liable by or through them, from any claims, lawsusts and actions which may arise from any audio or video recordings occurring in or around the Property.

The disposition of a U.S. real property interest by a foreign person (the transferor) is subject to the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980 (FIRPTA) income tax withholding. FIRPTA authorized the United States to tax foreign persons on dispositions of U.S. real property interests. This includes but is not limited to a sale or exchange, liquidation, redemption, gift, transfers, etc. Persons purchasing U.S. real property interests (transferee) from foreign persons, certain purchasers' agents, and settlement officers are required to withhold up to 15 percent of the amount realized (special rules for foreign corporations). Withholding is intended to ensure U.S. taxation of gains realized on disposition of such interests. The transferee/buyer, as the withholding agent, may request that you complete a FIRPTA Affidavit regarding your status as a foreign person as defined by the Act. Seller agrees to comply, if applicable.
